

Extraordinary vacancies: Delegates and committees

Extraordinary Vacancies

Nominations are called for Extraordinary Vacancies for Unions WA Delegates, the Education Committee and the Disputes Resolution Committee

Following the close of nominations for these positions, on Wednesday 16 September 2015, a number of vacancies still exist for Delegates and Committee Members.

Nominations are now called to fill these vacancies. (Note: Those members that lodged their nominations prior to Wednesday 16 September do not need to re-nominate)

The vacancies are as follows:

Unions WA Delegates
Thirteen (13) positions

Disputes Resolution Committee
Twelve (12) positions

Education Committee
Eight (8) positions

Nomination forms are to be addressed to:

The Returning Officer
SSTUWA
150 Adelaide Terrace
East Perth
WA 6004

Or faxed to 9210 6001 or scanned and emailed to returningofficer@sstuwa.org.au - (Original hard copy forms must follow)

Nomination forms must be received at the Union Office by 5pm Friday 6 November 2015.

Forms are available at www.sstuwa.org.au/committees

If more nominations than vacant positions are received then a ballot will be conducted on Sunday 15 November during the State Council Meeting.

Ian Stringall
Returning Officer
SSTUWA
9 October 2015

Authorised by Mary Franklyn, General Secretary, The State School Teachers' Union of W.A.

ABN 54 478 094 635 © 2025